The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 19. to Saturday June 21. 1712.

St. James's, June 19.

THIS Day the following Addreſs from the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by John Middleton, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives for the ſaid Borough, introduced by the moſt Honourable Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex.

Madam,

WITH Hearts full of Gratitude and Affection we beg leave to approach Your Sacred Preſence with our Congratulations for the Succeſs that has attended Your Majeſty's Endeavours for a General Peace, notwithſtanding the reſtleſs Attempts of Your Enemies, and the artful Contrivances of thoſe who Envy our Happineſs, to hinder this Great and Good Work.

The near Proſpect of the many Benefits Your Kingdoms will receive by ſuch a Peace, is very pleaſing to us, and the Honour Your Majeſty has reſtored to Great Britain by being at the Head of this Negotiation, gives us the greateſt Satisfaction and Content.

The entire Confidence we have in Your Majeſty's Care for the Welfare and Proſperity of all Your Subjects, encourages us to deſire You to proceed and Compleat our Joy, by obtaining for us a ſpeedy Peace, upon Terms ſo Honourable and Advantageous to this Nation.

May the Almighty ſtill Crown all Your Majeſty's Undertakings with Succeſs, direct Your Councils, and thoſe employ'd under You, (with the ſame Courage, Zeal and Fidelity they have lately ſhewn) to diſappoint and defeat the Vile Practices of all Deſigning Men, and perfect Your Majeſty's great Labour of making us yet a Happy and a Flouriſhing People.

The following Addreſs from the Town of Kingſtone upon Thames was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary St. John.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, High-Steward, Learned Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the Town of Kingſtone upon Thames, at their General Court-Leet and Court-Baron held for the ſaid Town, on Tueſday the Tenth of June, 1712.

Moſt Dread Sovereign,

WE humbly beg leave to acknowledge with the utmoſt Senſe of Gratitude, Your Majeſty's great Condeſcention, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made; whereby all Your Subjects, may with the higheſt Satisfaction, ſee Your Majeſty inceſſantly continuing Your Tenderneſs and Care, for the Safety, Intereſt and Welfare of Your People, and for procuring to Your Allies whatever is juſtly due to them by Treaties, and neceſſary for their Security.

We are ſenſible that the Obligations we have all to Your Majeſty for this, are beyond what is poſſible for Words to expreſs, and are fully perſuaded from Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Prudence, a Peace will be ſpeedily ſettled, Glorious to Your Majeſty and Your Subjects, Honourable to Your Miniſters, Advantageous and Happy to Your People and Allies; and do moſt humbly aſſure Your Majeſty, that on all Occaſions, and to the utmoſt of Our Powers, we will ſtand by Your Majeſty and Your Prerogative, againſt all Your Enemies and Oppoſers at Home and Abroad.

The following Addreſs from the City of New Sarum, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Pitt, Eſq; accompanied by ſeveral other Gentlemen of the County of Sarum, introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary St. John.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, having always deeply at Heart the many Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, cannot omit any opportunity of repeating our unſhaken Loyalty and Affection to Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government; as alſo on this Occaſion to expreſs our full Joy and Satisfaction in Your Majeſty's moſt wiſe and tender Care for the good of your own Kingdoms, the ſecurity of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, and reſtoring Peace to Europe.

Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to give us a convincing Inſtance hereof, in Your moſt gracious Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, wherein Your Majeſty in your great Goodneſs, has condeſcended to communicate to Your People the Terms on which a General Peace may be made, not only Safe and Honourable to Your Own Kingdoms, but conſiſtent alſo with the common Security of Your Allies, and with what is due to them by Treaties.

May Your Majeſty's pious Endeavours prove effectual towards perfecting ſo great and good a Work, to the Confuſion of all ſecret Cabals and wicked Artifices to obſtruct the ſame, that we and all Your Majeſty's good Subjects being bleſſed with a Peace Abroad, and free from all Dregs of Faction at Home, may long enjoy the Bleſſings of Your Majeſty's happy and peaceable Reign over us.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Coire, July 5. N. S. Both Parties in the War of Switzerland are ſo furiouſly incenſed againſt each other, that the Priſoners are not treated ſo well as they would be by any other Enemy. This State, in compliance with the Demands made to them by the Cantons of Zurich and Bern, by virtue of their ancient Alliances, have granted them the Succours which they had ſtipulated for, amounting to Sixteen hundred Men, and the Officers are named who
